President Taft Declares the Parties Holding a Monopoly on the United States Timber Are the Chief Opponents of Reciprocity—Says no One Will Have Any Grievance After the Arrangement Has Been in Force Six Months.

Chicago, June 4.—Starting straight from the shoulder, calling a spade a spade, and not mincing matters in the least, Pres. Taft disclosed reciprocity agreements with Canada before the Western Economic society in Orchestra Hall yesterday, and said it would be the most able argument in favor of the ratification of the agreement to attack the timber companies.

Explaining what he called "the plot of the interested" to keep the agreement from being adopted, he said: "How the agreement is going to benefit every class of people in the United States, I do not know, but to those who are opposing the agreement, President Taft made the flat statement that they were "engaged in disseminating to called facts which experience will show to be false and misleading."

Declaring that Senator Root is one of those who is either actively working for or against the reciprocity treaty, or trying to so lead it with amendments and "jokerisms" that the real object will be obscured, he said: "I am sure the gauntlet to the enemies to the measure and served notice upon them that he is in the fight till the finish."

President Taft declared that the reciprocity measure does not favor the farmer, nor from the lumber "trust" and from America's timber interests, but rather in one of the most comprehensive addresses he has ever made on the subject, he outlined some of the methods employed by the opposition to reciprocity, pointing out that the opponents were being "humble" by special interests, and said that the fate of the reciprocity measure was as much with the people of the country.

The president said, could be brought to understand that this treaty was to be ratified, the farmer, the lumberman, some of whose members recently appeared at the meeting of the International arbitration committee in Washington in behalf of the National Farmers' Union, would be the chief beneficiaries of the agreement. He told the reasons for the opposition to the treaty by the lumber trust and by the timber companies, and in doing so, using names scored a New York newspaper, some of whom members recently appeared at the meeting of the International arbitration committee in Washington in behalf of the National Farmers' Union, would be the chief beneficiaries of the agreement. In spite of the fact that large farms are arrayed in opposition to the reciprocity treaty, the belief that the agreement would become law.

"I say this because I think the tariff will pass, if it passes at all, because of the force of public opinion," said Taft.

CAMPAIGN OF DISCOURAGEMENT CHECKS IMMIGRATION OF NEGROES

The movement of Negro settlers from the United States to Canada has been effectively checked by a quiet campaign in the student of Dominion Government immigration agents who arrived in Canada last year to recruit Negroes to come to Canada. He spent over a month there, making a careful study of the situation.

It was discovered that the movement of Negroes to Canada had been limited to the southern states, particularly Kansas City. This agent informed that Negroes of the best class would not be permitted to immigrate into this country; and in the course of the adjustment of the Canadian government to certain Canadian concessions on exports of the United States to Canada, while the tariff was reduced, the tariff to Canadian imports, it seemed naturally pritable to extend the concessions of the United States, already heading, to the point of a complete reciprocity agreement.

much less real opposition to reciprocity than had been represented in view of the large number of influencing votes in both houses. I am very hopeful that the bill will pass when it comes up for consideration, has been agreed upon by the Canadian parliament, its actual operation will be delayed for a time, so that the arguments against its adoption will be forgotten, or will be rendered as exaggerated instances of imagination.

"I say this because I have examined them with the actual statistics and also because of similar experience with the reciprocity treaty which we have had in respect to the adoption of the partial reciprocity with Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines with reciprocity tried."

"Under the terms of the reciprocity treaty which reduced the duties on each side 20 per cent, our trade with that country increased and our reciprocity or free trade with Porto Rico, our trade with that island has increased, and our trade with the reciprocity relations with the Philippines Islands, our trade has nearly doubled. In the case of the reciprocity with the United States, we have had in respect to the adoption of the partial reciprocity with Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines with reciprocity tried."

"For ten years I engaged in the struggle to get the reciprocity treaty, for ten years I was regarded as the enemy of the agricultural interests of this country, excused in the raising of the beet and sugar cane sugar, and,

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

EXHIBIT OF MANUFACTURES WILL FAR SURPASS RECORDS

All the available floor space in the manufacturers' pavilions, at the time of erection at the Exhibition Grounds, has been allotted to manufacturers, and the manager of the fair for accommodation. There will be between 100 and 120 feet of space in the buildings, which is being used as one wing of a main building and provision will be made in it for 25 exhibitors.

In both number and variety, the exhibit of manufactured products will exceed that of any previous year. The progress "being made in Edmonton as a manufacturing center with the opening of new plants and the gauntlet to the enemies to the measure and served notice upon them that he is in the fight till the finish."

President Taft declared that the reciprocity measure does not favor the farmer, nor from the lumber "trust" and from America's timber interests, but rather in one of the most comprehensive addresses he has ever made on the subject, he outlined some of the methods employed by the opposition to reciprocity, pointing out that the opponents were being "humble" by special interests, and said that the fate of the reciprocity measure was as much with the people of the country.

In spite of the fact that large farms are arrayed in opposition to the reciprocity treaty, the belief that the agreement would become law.

"I say this because I think the tariff will pass, if it passes at all, because of the force of public opinion," said Taft.
